

Please let it go. You are unfairly going after Howard Stern and others. I have switched to XM radio because I cannot stand for others to push their morals down my throat. On www.howardstern.com, they had the transcript of the Oprah Show and his show. Clearly, Oprah's show gave more explicit answers than that of Howard, yet he gets fined.

Go find someone else. Leave XM alone. I switched because I want to hear things as they are supposed to be heard. Let them play traffic. Just because the other stations are now upset because there is a choice they want to complain.
